50 by 70: Cycling the Sierras

For the past two weeks Mike and Sam have been riding for you, raising funds and awareness for PXE research as they bike through the first three states on their 50 by 70 journey.

Have you been tracking their progress? Check out our interactive map where you can watch as they finish "Cycling the Sierras" this weekend.

So far they have raised over $6200, all of which will be doubled in our Matching Challenge.

Help out by sharing their story or donating to give them that extra push across the finish line! Then head over to our Facebook page to cheer them on while they pedal through the final miles of this ride.

Matching Challenge 2019

Throughout May, our donors added another $7000 to our Matching Challenge, pushing our total over $339,300, from over 400 contributors!

Each donation funds important PXE Research.

Thank you to everyone who continues to share and donate as you keep this challenge going steady. With you we can make it to the goal in no time!
